

JUDr. Alexandra HORVÁTHOVA LL.M. S.J.D.

Associate

London - Budapest - Copenhagen

Background

Alexandra is a lawyer and an anti-bribery, financial crime, international capital law and CSR expert with a wealth of academic and practical knowledge.

Called to the bar in Slovakia, she is a former member of the CEE litigation, arbitration and white-collar crime team at CMS Cameron McKenna. Alongside her work for CNS she is a post doc researcher at the University of Copenhagen's Law School, where she teaches courses on CSR and Private Equity.

CNS Risk's legal expert, Alexandra advises clients on anti-corruption, regulatory and cross-border litigation challenges. She collaborates extensively with the firm's investigation and forensic teams, as well as with clients' external advisors. She also heads our compliance and CSR practice, focusing on anti-corruption and the protection of environmental and human rights.

A research fellow at the CEU Business School's Center for Integrity in Business and Government (2012-2015) and a visiting researcher at the Cornell Law School (2014) and the Oxford Law School (2013), Alexandra is published in international law journals and a frequent speaker at international conferences.

Fluent in English, Slovak, German, French and Hungarian, Alexandra holds degrees from the Faculty of Law at Comenius University (Bratislava), and the Central European University (Budapest & New York).
